

Wright in Wisconsin in conjunction with Racine Heritage Museum presents:

Friday, September 6th from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. at Racine Heritage Museum,
701 Main Street, Racine, WI

(part of Wright in Wisconsin's Wright and Like 2024 Architectural Tour weekend)

The exhibit highlights the young Frank L. Wright and his friend Cecil Sherman Corwin, the forgotten architect and mentor who did much to shape him into the architect we know as Frank Lloyd Wright. The exhibit was curated by Tim Samuelson, the City of Chicago's cultural historian emeritus and is comprised of his extensive collection of early Wright architectural salvage, drawings and images.

Tim will join us at 7:00 to discuss the exhibit.

$75.00 for Wright in Wisconsin Members

$100.00 for Non-members

Wine, Beer, Soda, and Water along with light appetizers will be provided.

Reservations now available at the link on the tour page (choose Debit or Credit Card if you do not have a PayPal account).

The event is limited to 60 people, so please make your reservation early to assure yourself a spot. Dress is business casual. Please note that Racine Heritage Museum is not ADA accessible.

Metered parking is available on Seventh Street and Main Street as well as in the McMynn Ramp just north of the museum at 110 Seventh Street.
